

Room A423Transforming education

Moderator: Agri McFarland, Glasgow
Caledonian University

11:20 – 11:45 Transforming a Midwifery

Grace Thomas Curriculum: lessons to support midwifery education worldwide

11:50 – 12:15 The Phoenix Project: midwifery

Grace Thomas collaboration between University of Namibia and Cardiff University

12:20 – 12:45 Establishment of Communities

Joanne Naidoo of Practice through the use of critical reflection among midwives at selected hospitals in Kwazulu-Natal, South Africa

Room A412aTransforming education

Moderator: Val Ness, Glasgow Caledonian University

11:20 – 11:45

Jean Rankin Introduction of increased supervisory status to senior charge nurses and midwives in Lanarkshire: Impact on clinical practice and leadership

11:50 – 12:15 Registered Nurses Perceptions

Makhosi Dube on Continuing Professional Development in South Africa

12:20 – 12:45 Working together to build

Florence West midwifery educator capacity in Papua New Guinea: Findings from a qualitative study

Room A426Research and EBP towards health for all

Moderator: Jamie Franks, Glasgow Caledonian University

11:20 – 11:45

Jill White Enhancing Nursing's influence, effectiveness and impact in national and international health policy development: a five country study

11:50 – 12:15

Jill White The power of synergy - A collaborative model of global nursing organisations for maximum influence in global health policymaking

12:20 – 12:45

Julia Samuelson World Health Organization global HIV prevention 2020 and 2030 goals and recommendations and exploring how to maximize contributions of nurses and midwives

Room A426cResearch and EBP towards health for all

Moderator: Evelyn McElhinney Glasgow Caledonian University

11:20 – 11:45

Tina Lavender Supporting evidence-based midwifery practice through audit and feedback: a LAMRN project in Kenya, Uganda, Zambia and Zimbabwe

11:50 – 12:15

Mary Lynn Gaffield Innovation in communication: The WHO Postpartum Family Planning Compendium

Transforming education

12:20 – 12:45

Gaynor D Maclean Game based learning for effective labour monitoring: An initiative in Sub-Saharan Africa

Room A426fResearch and EBP towards health for all

Moderator: Alan Middleton, Glasgow Caledonian University

11:20 – 11:45

Amanda Smith Experiences and expectations, mental health user - practitioner collaboration within a psychiatric hospital out-patient department

11:50 – 12:15

Amanda Smith The practitioners' 'helper', Families of mental health care users

Room A427Research and EBP towards health for all

Moderator: Janet Finlayson, Glasgow Caledonian University

11:20 – 11:45

Walter de Caro Health Information, Health Behaviour And Social Network: Nursing Point Of View

11:50 – 12:15

Deva-Marie Beck 2020 Vision For A Healthy World: Pro-active Stakeholders in the Global Health of Our Time

12:20 – 12:45

Denise Seigart International Comparisons of School Nursing Models

Room A526Midwifery Developments

Moderator: Roseanne Cetnarakyj, Glasgow Caledonian University

11:20 – 11:45

Floreliz Ngayava Role of Ayod Community Health Teams in Promoting Maternal and infant Health in a Municipality in Ifugao, Philippines

11:50 – 12:15

Jodi Lori The Rural/Urban Gap in Midwifery Workforce Development

12:20 – 12:45

Tina Lavender Lessons learnt from the Lugina Africa Midwives Research Network (LAMRN)

Room A526cMidwifery Developments

Moderator: Susan Kerr, Glasgow Caledonian University

11:20 – 11:45

Joy Clarke Female Genital Mutilation - Promoting best practice

11:50 – 12:15

Helene Johns Under the pump - The Mothers and Infants Lactation Cohort Study

Room A526fMidwifery Developments

Moderator: Eleanor Forrest, Glasgow Caledonian University

11:20 – 11:45

Caroline Homer Providing quality midwifery care: Barriers, voices and solutions

11:50 – 12:15

Caroline Homer Midwifery 2030: Addressing the global agenda to Survive - Thrive - Transform

12:20 – 12:45

Pat Brodie Strengthening midwifery in Papua New Guinea through capacity building and innovation