TIM RUSSON JAN AAGE FJORTOFT Voice over In a week when English football went crashing ... Norweigan Jan Aage Fjortoft was climbing to the top ... he scored one of the Norway goals that put paid to Poland and stamped his country's ticket for America and the 94 world cup ... so much for international success ... what about Swindon ... he hasn't scored for them in the league yet ... but would give anything ... and everything to get amongst the goals Jan Aage says having scored for Norway he now hopes he can score for swindon in the league and that this is a turning point he would rather score for swindon than norway ... The goals were going in for Jan Aage in pre season friendlies ... Swindon were winning too ... who knows Norway's world cup success may just push the winning button at the county ground ... Its Everton tomorrow ... keeper Fraser Digby is fit again and he's back in goal ... Welsh international Paul Bodin he's still got world cup hopes of course has recovered from hamstringing trouble ... Town's form we all know ... Everton got off to good start but are slipping down the table ... moving up the table are Oxford ... Southend away tomorrow ... and if you believe in lucky omens ... here's one ... United's best ... biggest away win last season was at Southend ... it was 3-0 ... two for Durnin and one for Dave Penney and manager Denis Smith says the same score will do him nicely tomorrow ... and for the first time in a long time ... manager Smith can name an unchanged team ... keep a winning side ... United are off the bottom thanks to last sunday's win ... Southend started well but have lost some form in recent weeks ... in the third division Hereford want to forget all about last week's six nil drubbing up at Crewe ... so instead we've got the three goals they scored against tomorrow's opponents Colchester last season ... a repeat performance would be just the job ... there's good news for United ... keeper Alan Judge is fit again so he's back and Chris Pike could also return to the attack ... they'll have a tough old game on their hands tomorrow as Colchester are playing well and getting results ... the goal of the week ... has to be the United winner against Stoke ... it lifted them off the bottom of the table ... A Penney from heaven Read in studio football may have had a rough old week ... but we've got some celebrating to do now ... Central South has two new champions ... one from speedway and one from boxing ... they've got centre stage in action roundup Video-Taped report follows Pictures Sky Sport SIMON WIGG/World Longtrack Champion Voice over Daren Fifield is our first new champ ... we met up with him in training a few weeks ago ... the boy was a knockout ... and he proved it at London's York Hall when he went and won the Commonwealth Flyweight Title ... Daren who comes from Kennington stopped his opponent Danny Porter in the ninth round ... He's Oxford's first professional boxing champion for

	thirty years it was a real bruiser of a battle ... Daren carried a few scars from it ... but congratulations to him ... next on the bill should be the British title our next champ is Simon Wigg from Buckinghamshire ... he's won the world long track title for the fourth time ... with a new look ... the bike has been aerodynamically designed by grand prix men ... and the suit which he wears over the leathers is made of lycra ... Simon Wigg says that everybody was laughing at him because the bike looked so different but he had the last laugh ... won the title and that's what it's all about ... Gloucester rugby club could do with some better aerodynamics at the moment ... the cherry and whites are still searching for their first win of the season ... they've a club game tomorrow against Cardiff at Kingsholm ... playing for a place in the third round of the Pilkington Cup are three local teams ... Hereford are away at Sheffield ... Lydney at home to Havant and Henley at home to St. Ives Read in studio A police squad has been out on the streets rounding up school truants. They picked up scores of children who should have been in class, and found that many stay away from school with their parents' knowledge and consent. Video-Taped report follows GRAEME BOWD/Milton Keynes CHRISTOPHER HART/Education Welfare Officer Sgt LAWRIE YEARLEY/Thames Valley Police Voice over Market day in Milton Keynes, and among the many shoppers there are some who shouldn't be here. Truancy has reached plague proportions, In this town around a thousand secondary schoolchildren stay away each day. Many wander aimlessly in the shopping centre, or play games machines in the arcades. Now a police truant squad is out to take them off the streets. They ask the youngsters why they're not at school. The children's details are checked with their school. Few excuses turn out
